India

Country Conditions for Mailing

Prohibitions (130)

Appliances (including pistols, pistol pencils, etc.) for discharging gas, except on behalf of the Government.

Arms and military equipment, except for the Indian Government.

Articles of gold or silver.

Coins; banknotes; currency notes; traveler's checks; securities payable to bearer; precious stones; jewelry; and other valuable articles.

Coins or ingots exceeding 65 rupees in value, except coins obviously intended for ornament.

Pistol-shaped articles such as toy guns.

Radioactive materials.

Restrictions

Addressees in India are required to obtain import licenses for all goods except those intended for their personal use and not exceeding 100 rupees in value. If the license is not obtained when required, the articles are considered as prohibited.

Commercial shipments of tobacco, manufactured or not may only be sent to licensed importers or wholesalers.

Consumer electronic items (except hearing aids and life-saving equipment, apparatus, and appliances and parts thereof).

Shipments of consumer electronics imported by one person at any one time and for personal use shall not exceed a Cost Insurance and Freight (CIF) value of 50,000 Indian rupees.

Indian banknotes, require permission of the Reserve Bank of India.

Perishable articles or edible substances are admitted only by airmail.

Piece goods and certain manufactured articles must be marked to show country of origin as prescribed by the Indian trademark regulations.

Works of art (including photographs); forms ruled or printed; account and manuscript books; labels; advertising matter (except trade catalogs and circulars); almanacs in sheets or in cards; and other cards, as well as waste paper and old newspaper for packing, are considered to be merchandise, and may be liable to customs duty.

Observations

1. In India, a very small number of articles is admitted free of customs duty and the tariffs of these duties vary considerably. The general rate of import duty is 30 percent but many articles are liable to a higher rate.
2. Import duty is chargeable even if the articles are received as free gifts. The fact that goods are old or second-hand or gifts or articles intended for personal use does not entitle them per se to exemption from import duty. However, the collection of duty is waived in cases where the total duty on a shipment does not exceed 3 rupees. Books and magazines are generally exempt from import duty.
3. Shipments can be more speedily released if their contents and value are clearly and correctly declared by the sender.
4. Insured Priority Mail International parcels addressed to the post office boxes of Draw, Kargil and Leh in the State of Kashmir are not accepted from November 1 to May 31.
5. India Post (the designated postal operator of India) requests that the mailer include both the addressee's telephone number (preferably mobile) and email address, if available, on the customs declaration form.

Country Conditions for Mailing

All items containing goods must, at minimum, include the corresponding 6-digit harmonized system code for each article listed on the customs declaration form. For more information, see 537 and the Observations section below.

Prohibitions (130)

Arms and weapons.
Articles bearing false trademarks or lacking the indication of origin required by the Irish regulations.
Coins minted in a foreign country, except gold and silver; false or counterfeit coins.
Hay, straw, including articles made of straw.
Human or animal remains (including cremated remains and ashes).
Live plants and animals.
Peat moss litter except under license.
Prison-made goods.
Safety fuses; fireworks.
Tobacco, cigars, or cigarettes packed with other articles; cut and compressed, sweetened, or adulterated tobacco.

Restrictions

Carbon paper, except for typewriter carbon paper that must be described on the customs declaration as follows:
“Typewriter carbon paper coated with wax and containing no oxidizable or fatty substances.”
Circulars or advertisements relating to the prevention or treatment of venereal disease must be addressed to physicians or pharmacists.
Import licensing information is contained in the Irish Customs and Excise Tariff, which may be obtained from the Secretary, Revenue Commissioners, Dublin Castle, Dublin 2 and from the Government Publications Sales Office, GPO Arcade, Dublin 1.
Importation of tea is subject to certain customs regulations.
Many other goods, including certain fruit, vegetables and other foodstuffs, plants and seeds, and certain pharmaceutical products are subject to special regulations.
Margarine, skimmed milk, and other diluted or adulterated foodstuffs must be suitably labeled.
Oiled or varnished cloth or similar articles must be accompanied by a certificate as follows: “The oilcloth or similar articles in this parcel have been stored at a temperature of 140°F until completely dried, and then cured for at least a month before packing.” Only in Priority Mail International parcels.
The following goods are subject to quota restrictions and require an import license: boots and shoes, brushes, electric lamp bulbs, screws, tapered thread; felt hats and caps for women and girls; brushes and mops; wheaten flour and any commodity or product of wheat; rubber proofed wearing apparel; sparking plugs and component parts; silk and artificial silk hose; and certain woven fabrics.

Observations

1. A parcel may be addressed to a street address or to a post office box. A local telephone number for the addressee should be provided when the item is addressed to a street address and must be provided when the item is addressed to a post office box.
2. For Priority Mail International parcels, an invoice, in duplicate, is required for all commercial shipments regardless of value and all personal shipments valued at $300 or more. The invoices must be affixed to the outside of the parcel or may be enclosed in PS Form 2976-E with the customs declaration.

3. The names of the counties in Ireland are as follows: Carlow, Cavan, Clare, Cork, Donegal, Dublin, Galway, Kerry, Kildare, Kilkenny, Leitrim, Laidighis, Limerick, Longford, Louth, Mayo, Meath, Monaghan, Offaly, Roscommon, Sligo, Tipperary, Waterford, Westmeath, Wexford, and Wicklow.
4. The names of the county and the delivery office must form a part of the address of all mail articles.
5. In the case of articles liable to customs duty that are eligible for preference, the preferential tariff will not be applied unless the customs declaration is inscribed in bold characters: “Preference claimed — Certificate of origin enclosed.” Otherwise, the full customs duties will be applied to the articles.
6. The same applies to goods imported under permit, unless the declaration is clearly marked “Imported under license,” and unless the relative license is produced at the time of customs examination. In such cases the license should be produced before the goods are imported.
7. As of July 1, 2021, the value-added tax (VAT) exemption is abolished on all imported goods. For more information regarding the European Union’s VAT rules, visit https://ec.europa.eu/taxation_customs/business/vat/vat-e-commerce_en.
8. A harmonized code (i.e., a code for the Integrated Tariff of the European Communities, also known as a “TARIC code”) is required for all goods destined to Ireland. The Irish customs authority has a tiered classification system. Some items require a 10-digit TARIC code while other items may be described using the 8-digit or 6-digit TARIC code. Items that require a 10-digit TARIC code may be returned by Irish customs, at the mailer’s expense, if the mailer provides only the first six or eight digits. Therefore, USPS recommends that mailers provide the 10-digit TARIC code for all goods destined to Ireland. More information can be found at <https://www.anpost.com/Commerce/SME/InternationalSending/Find-a-TARIC-Commodity-code>.
9. Ireland requests that, for all items containing goods, the customs declaration form include the following information, if available:
 - a. Country of origin for each article in the item.
 - b. Economic Operator Registration Identification (EORI), if such a number has been assigned.

Ammunition.

Firearms, the components and accessories of firearms, and weapons. Firearms (including handguns, pistols, machine guns, and rifles), the components and accessories of firearms, and other types of weapons (including daggers, swords, spears, and switch blade knives) may not be imported into Japan unless addressed to an appropriate organization and unless the intended recipient has received prior permission from the competent authority (such as the Public Safety Commission) in the prefecture in which that recipient resides.

Hoverboards or gyroboards.

Infectious substances.

Items that infringe on patent rights, utility model rights, design rights, trademark rights, copyrights, neighboring rights, or layout design rights.

Narcotics, psychotropic substances, and other similar substances.

Radioactive materials.

Restrictions

Banknotes; securities payable to bearer; coins, gold bullion; bills of exchange; letters of credit; and other payment orders are subject to the conditions laid down in the law concerning foreign exchange and trade control.

Coins; banknotes; currency notes (paper money); securities payable to bearer; traveler's checks; platinum, gold, or silver, manufactured or not; precious stones; jewelry; and other valuable articles may only be sent in First-Class Package International Service with Registered Mail service shipments or insured Priority Mail International parcels.

Meat products are prohibited unless accompanied by an inspection certificate issued by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Plants are limited to parcels and small packets only and are prohibited unless accompanied by a phytosanitary certificate issued by the country of origin, in accordance with Japan's national legislation. For a U.S. mailer, the phytosanitary certificate must come from the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA). Japan's national legislation authorizes the destruction of items that do not have the proper documentation. Japan's national legislation recommends that the outer package contains the words "Contains plants," "Requires plant inspection," "Plants," "Plant seeds," or similar wording. Confirmation of import conditions and additional guidance is available through the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries at www.pps.go.jp/english/index.html.

Observations

- Human ashes may be accepted if presented for mailing by a licensed crematory or licensed mortuary. The ashes must be packed in a sealed metal container enclosed in a substantial outer container. There must be enclosed within the outer container, but outside the metal container, a certified copy of the death certificate and a statement or certificate executed by the crematory or mortuary to the effect that the ashes are those of the person named in the death certificate.
- Many articles are subject to an import license. Senders should ascertain from the addressee before mailing whether the necessary documents are held. Import permits are not required for articles intended for personal use and in quantities such that they could not be used for commercial purposes; articles for the relief of disaster victims; ashes of the dead; and publications sent to libraries as part of an exchange between countries.

- A sales invoice is required for all articles valued at more than U.S. $1,600.00. The invoice must be affixed to the outside of the parcel or may be enclosed with the customs declaration in the plastic envelope of PS Form 2976-E. The sales invoice must not obscure the customs declaration, which must show through the plastic envelope.
- To improve the readability of postal labels in order to enhance customs clearance and the processing and delivery of mail destined to Japan, Japan Post requests that the mailer use labels made from non-thermal paper and recommends a font size of 10 points for the destination and sender's addresses.
- Japan Post requests that each item addressed to Japan include the correct postal code on the address label and, when applicable, also on the customs form. Information regarding Japanese postcodes is available in Japanese at <https://www.post.japanpost.jp/zipcode/dl/roman-zip.html>. For customers who are able to access the website in English, Japanese postcode information is available under the heading "Download Data."

Observations

- For postal items destined to a private individual within a given calendar month, the total duty-free value limit and weight import limit are as follows:
 - From March 31, 2022, until September 30, 2022: 1,000 EUR and 31 kg (68 pounds), respectively. Customs duties apply as follows: the greater fee of either 15 percent of the amount exceeding 1,000 EUR, or at least 2 EUR per kg of the weight exceeding 31 kg (68 pounds).
 - Starting October 1, 2022: 200 EUR and 31 kg (68 pounds), respectively. Customs duties will apply as follows: the greater fee of either 15 percent of the amount exceeding 200 EUR, or at least 2 EUR per kg of the weight exceeding 31 kg (68 pounds).
- On all Registered Mail service items sent to Kazakhstan, display the addressee's first and last name and patronymic (if any) in the address field and the addressee's national identity number (if possible) in the "importer's reference" or "comments" field of the customs form.
- Kazakhstan requires one copy of a commercial invoice for each Priority Mail Express International package containing merchandise and/or any article subject to customs duty.
- Kazpost Joint Stock Company (Kazpost JSC, the designated postal operator of Kazakhstan) recommends that the mailer include on each item addressed to Kazakhstan the unique 7-character postcode assigned to each group of buildings within 22 localities of Kazakhstan. The postcode consists of a combination of letters and numbers (e.g., R00H5A9). Postcodes are available at post.kz/postcode (only in Russian).

For a Registered Mail item that does not require a customs declaration form, display the addressee's telephone number (preferably mobile) on the address label. Providing the addressee's mobile phone number facilitates customs clearance and delivery of the item in Kazakhstan.
- Kazpost JSC requests that the mailer include the addressee's email address (if available) on the generated customs declaration form.
