Country Conditions for Mailing

Prohibitions (130)
Arms, ammunition except when sent on behalf of the Government.
Coins; bank notes; currency notes (paper money); securities of any kind payable to bearer; traveler's checks; platinum, gold, and silver (manufactured or not); precious stones; jewelry; and other valuable articles are prohibited in all classes of mail, including Priority Mail Express International shipments, that are mailed to Pakistan.
Lottery tickets or circulars relating to lotteries.
Obscene or immoral articles including adult toys and related items.
Perishable infectious biological substances.
Radioactive materials.

Restrictions
Bank checks, immigration documents, original educational documents, Graduate Record Examination (GRE), Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), and International English Language Testing System (IELTS) tests may be sent only by Priority Mail Express International service or with Registered Mail service.
Mobile telephones, watches, fountain pens, cameras, eyeglasses, toys, and other valuable consumer products must be mailed in insured parcels.

Observations
1. Import permits or licenses are required for many types of goods. Therefore, senders should ascertain from the addressee before mailing whether the necessary documents are held.
2. Import licenses are not required for unsolicited gift shipments involving no remittance of foreign exchange from Pakistan provided that such parcels do not contain textiles (other than made up garments and second-hand clothing), imitation jewelry, watches and watch bands, fountain pens, cameras, radio sets, and trophies (such as of animals and birds). All goods sent in gift shipments are subject to a maximum value of 1,000 rupees per person per year. For this purpose the year commences on 1 July and ends on 30 June.

Restrictions
Telecommunications equipment (including mobile telephones) requires a license from the Ministry of Transport and Communications before mailing.

Observations
1. First-Class Mail International and First-Class Package International Service items may not contain dutiable articles.
2. Each shipment valued at U.S. $200 or over must be accompanied by a consular invoice if there is a Peruvian consulate located at the place of mailing. If there is none, a commercial invoice must be furnished instead. The commercial invoice must be legalized by a Peruvian consulate or countersigned by a chamber of commerce, or if neither is available, it may bear the notarized signatures of two well-known local merchants. If the value is under U.S. $200, a commercial invoice must be furnished but need not be legalized. The consular or commercial invoice may be either enclosed in the parcel or sent separately to the addressee so as to arrive before the parcel, but the legalization must not be dated later than the day of mailing.
3. Peruvian consuls are located in principal cities of the United States.
4. Gifts addressed to persons native to the country do not require a commercial invoice unless the value of such gifts exceeds U.S. $450 per calendar year.
5. Many items are prohibited import into Peru. Therefore, senders should ascertain from the addressee before mailing whether the item may be received or not.
6. Each item addressed to Peru must include the correct 5-digit postcode to ensure efficient and accurate delivery. Information regarding Peruvian postcodes is available on the national postcode website at www.codigopostal.gob.pe (in Spanish only).

Restrictions
Powdered coffee, coffee beans, or ground coffee, used for personal consumption only. Powdered coffee may not exceed two plastic bottles, each containing 500 grams (approximately 17.64 ounces), and coffee beans or ground coffee may not exceed 2 kilograms (approximately 4.4 pounds). Approval from the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) – Philippines is required for items that exceed these limits.
Plants and similar items require sanitary and phytosanitary import clearances and phytosanitary certificates from the Philippines Bureau of Plant Industry (National Plant Protection Organization). Philippines national legislation authorizes the disposal or destruction of items that do not contain the proper documentation.

Observations
1. Commercial invoices that have a dutiable value of 3000 pesos and above are subject to authentication by the Philippine Consulate and to the payment of a fee of U.S. $30.
2. Philippine postal authorities recommend that letters containing checks or other negotiable instruments be sent by Registered Mail.
3. The following documents should accompany all mail items containing cremated human remains:
   - Certificate of cremation.
   - Transport permit information.
   - Death certificate/case of death.
   - Quarantine certificate/permit.
   The mailer must place the documents in a transparent plastic envelope (such as PS Form 2976-E, Customs Declaration Envelope CP 91) and affix the envelope to the exterior of the box with a “cremated human remains” label (such as Label 139, Cremated Remains).

All items containing goods must include the corresponding 6-digit harmonized system code for each article listed on the customs declaration form. For more information, see Publication 141, General Conditions for Mailing.

Prohibitions (130)

Arms, ammunition, and parts and accessories thereof, except that hunting guns or similar guns belonging to legal persons are admitted with agreement of the Romanian police department.

Coins; bank notes; currency notes; or securities of any kind payable to bearer; traveler’s checks; platinum, gold, or silver (whether manufactured or not), precious stones; jewelry; or other valuable articles.

Explosives, pyrotechnic products; matches, pyrophoric alloys, and combustible preparations.

Indecent or obscene books, cards, photographs, manuscripts, typescripts, or other products of the printing industry.

Perishable infectious biological substances.

Perishable noninfectious biological substances.

Radioactive materials.

Tobacco and manufactured tobacco substitutes.

Restrictions

Many items are admitted conditionally subject to permits or certificates (such as veterinary health or phytosanitary certificates for products of animal or vegetable origin) issued by the Romanian legal authorities.

Pharmaceutical products are admitted only with the agreement of the Ministry of Health.

Vitamins require a permit issued by the Ministry of Health or Ministry of Agriculture.

Observations

1. As of July 1, 2021, the value-added tax (VAT) exemption is abolished on all imported goods. For more information regarding the European Union’s VAT rules, visit https://ec.europa.eu/taxation_customs/business/vat/e-commerce_en.

2. Romania requests that, for all items containing goods, the customs declaration form include the following information, if available:
   a. Country of origin for each article in the item.
   b. Economic Operator Registration Identification (EORI), if such a number has been assigned.
   c. Telephone number and email address for the addressee.

Country Conditions for Mailing

In alignment with U.S. government sanctions and the Bureau of Industry and Security, “luxury goods” destined to Russia require a license and an Internal Transaction Number (ITN). For a list of luxury goods, see Exhibit 533. No exemptions are allowed.

The 10-digit Schedule B number must appear in the HS Tariff Number block on the customs declaration form for each good exported, reexported, or transferred (in country) to and within Russia. See 534.

Prohibitions (130)
Alcohol products and ethyl alcohol, beer.
Ammonition, and parts thereof.
Calls to extreme and terrorist activities or public justification of terrorism.
Currency of the Russian Federation; foreign currency.
Documents of current and personal correspondence and any correspondence exchanged by the persons not being the sender and recipient or a person residing therewith.
Electric fishing systems and equipment consisting of electric signal generators with connected conductors and accumulators (batteries), employed together to fish biological aquatic resources using electric current.
Equipment for fishing/catching the aqueous biological resources.
Explosives; inflammatory substances, blasting devices, and firing agents.
Hazardous wastes.
Indecent and immoral items.
Items that by their nature or packaging may be hazardous for the postal personnel or ordinary population, or may soil or damage other mail units, postal equipment, or property of the third party.
Ready mesh fishing nets made from synthetic or other polyamide monothreads, with a thread diameter less than 0.5 mm and mesh size less than 100 mm (length of mesh at one side less than 50 mm).
Live animals (see exception for bees, leeches, and silkworms in the Restrictions list).
Materials containing Nazi ideas or symbols, or ideas or symbols that might be confused with those of Nazi ideology.
Narcotics, psychotropic substances, and precursors, including in drug form.
Ozone-depleting substances.
Pathogenic or potentially pathogenic organisms.
Perishable items.
Poisonous substances other than precursors of narcotics and psychotropic substances.
Pornographic materials.
Precious stones of any kind or natural diamonds, except for jewelry.
Printed books, newspapers, pictures, and other products of the printing industry, manuscripts, and miscellaneous documents containing information that could be detrimental to State security, social order, public morals, or property rights, including intellectual property and other interests of natural and legal persons.
Printed or audiovisual materials that are manufactured or distributed in violation of the legal requirements on elections and referenda in member countries of the Eurasian Economic Community Customs Union.
Printed or audiovisual materials if any of the following apply:
1. They are items that propagate extremist or terrorist activities or publicly justify terrorism.
2. They are items of a pornographic nature.
3. They are items intended to spread propaganda containing Nazi ideas or symbols, or ideas or symbols that might be confused with those of Nazi ideology.
4. They are items containing information that could be prejudicial to the political and economic interests of Russia, to public safety, or to the health and morality of its citizens.
Tobacco products or smoking mixtures of any kind.
Weapons of any kind, and parts thereof.

Restrictions
The following items may be sent only when used for personal use subject to appropriate permission from the Russian national controlling authority:
1. Cryptographic devices and equipment with the cryptographic function.
2. Radioelectric devices and/or high-frequency civil devices, including built-ins or parts of other goods.
3. Bees, leeches, and silkworms accompanied by a veterinary certificate.

The following items are prohibited when sent to or from the address of private individuals for needs that are not related to company activities:
1. Scrap and waste from ferrous and non-ferrous metals.
2. Nonmanufactured precursors or ideas or symbols that might be confused with those of Nazi ideology.
4. Information about the Earth’s interior.
5. Technical devices designed for eavesdropping.
6. Human organs and/or tissues, and blood and its components.
7. Radioactive materials.
8. Cultural artifacts.
9. Plants of any kind and in any form, including seeds.

Observations
1. Articles or parts thereof imported for repair or replacement are exempt from customs duty if the sender’s written declaration is included in the postal item.
2. Articles prohibited as imports into Russia and falsely indicated or not indicated at all on the customs declaration are confiscated.
3. If prohibited articles are sent, one of the following measures is taken:
   − Seizure of the prohibited articles only, the rest delivered to the addressee.
   − Return of the item to the country of origin.
   − Seizure of the whole item.
4. Inherited goods from abroad are admitted and are exempt from customs duties on the basis of certificates issued by consulates of the Russian Federation abroad on the basis of the law of inheritance and the composition of the legacy.
5. It is prohibited to import into Russia postal items from commercial companies intended for private individuals permanently resident in Russia with the exception of legacies as well as articles admitted for repairs or replacement. However, licensed parcels from private parcel companies that have entered into a contract with VO “Vnieshtorg” are admitted. All dispatch formalities must be complied with in accordance with the current regulations in the Russian Federation.

6. As of January 1, 2020, for a postal item arriving to a private individual, the total duty-free value limit and weight import limit are 200 EUR and 31 kg (68 pounds), respectively. If the postal item exceeds either limit, a customs duty fee applies as follows: the greater fee of either 15 percent of the amount exceeding 200 EUR, or at least 2 EUR per kg of the total weight of the postal item.

7. Items not intended for the addressee’s personal use are understood to be items sent systematically in bulk even if they have different addresses and the regulation limit of the articles is complied with for each item separately. Such items are returned to the country of origin.

Restrictions
Importation of medicine into Serbia is possible only through a legal entity that has permission to import medicine and medical equipment from the National Law of Medicines and Medical Equipment of the Republic of Serbia. Individuals may receive samples of medicine in compliance with that law.

Observations
1. Postal items addressed to natural persons of Yugoslav or foreign nationality may contain personal travel articles, articles for personal use, and for the use of members of a family (medicines and medical instruments, teaching material, and leisure material), and articles for the use of their household in quantities not intended for resale. Such articles shall be imported against payment of Customs duty and other fees.
2. Items inherited abroad as well as articles provided for in contracts concluded between States may be freely imported in accordance with such contracts.
3. Items addressed to natural persons of Yugoslav or foreign nationality, the total equivalent value of which in dinars does not exceed 30 United States dollars (USD), are exempted from Customs duty; items the total equivalent value of which exceeds 30 United States dollars do not enjoy this privilege.
4. Natural persons of Yugoslav nationality exercising a profession are entitled to import articles serving to exercise that profession (equipment, reproduction material, and spare parts); importation will be subject to special conditions.
5. The sender is required to show clearly on the Customs declaration the special entitlement to import items containing articles imported under special conditions and regulations. Failing this, the addressee will be required to produce proof before delivery.
6. The value restriction does not apply to certain articles sent to persons who are entitled under special rules and conditions to import certain articles or to items containing articles inherited abroad.

Prohibitions (130)

Chain letter items.
Publications, drawings, photographs, records, sheets of music, etc., contrary to the State public order.
Perishable infectious substances.
Perishable noninfectious substances.
Playing cards.
Radioactive materials.

Restrictions

Coins; paper money; securities and other paper values of any kind; as well as savings-bank booklets; and unmanufactured gold, silver, and platinum may be imported only by authorization of the State Bank.
Gift shipments must be sent by private individuals. Those sent by commercial firms are not admitted.
Import permits are required for gift shipments exceeding three per year for one addressee, or for any parcel exceeding 3,000 Slovak Republic crowns in value. Permits may be issued to addressees or withheld at the discretion of the customs authorities after the shipment arrives.
Medicines are admitted provided the addressee is in possession of an import permit granted by the Slovak Republic health authorities.
Philatelic articles and stamps exchanged between member philatelists must not exceed 1,000 Slovak Republic crowns in any calendar year. Gift packages containing philatelic articles are restricted to 3 per year and the shipment cannot exceed a total of 100 stamps or philatelic articles and 100 Slovak Republic crowns in value.

Observations

1. A parcel may be addressed to a street address or to a post office box. A local telephone number for the addressee should be provided when the item is addressed to a street address and must be provided when the item is addressed to a post office box.
2. Import licenses and quantity restrictions are applicable for many articles sent to the Slovak Republic. Therefore, senders should ascertain from the addressee before mailing whether the contents are permitted and whether the necessary documents are held.
3. Gift shipments for the personal use of the addressee or the addressee’s family do not require an import permit if the contents do not exceed 5,000 Slovak Republic crowns. When the total exceeds 2,000 Slovak Republic crowns, the addressee must provide a gift certificate authenticated by an authorized agent in that country. Slovak Republic customs decides the value of the contents on the basis of internal prices of identical articles.
4. Articles imported in postal items are exempt from customs duties if their total value does not exceed 300 Slovak Republic crowns.
5. As of July 1, 2021, the value-added tax (VAT) exemption is abolished on all imported goods. For more information regarding the European Union’s VAT rules, visit https://ec.europa.eu/taxation_customs/business/vat/vat-e-commerce_en.

Pharmaceutical drugs are admitted only by authorized importers.

Observations
1. A parcel may be addressed to a street address or to a post office box. A local telephone number for the addressee should be provided when the item is addressed to a street address and must be provided when the item is addressed to a post office box.
2. For parcels, an invoice, in duplicate, is required for all commercial shipments regardless of value and all personal shipments valued at $300 or more. The invoices must be affixed to the outside of the parcel or may be enclosed in PS Form 2976-E with the customs declaration.
3. As of July 1, 2021, the value-added tax (VAT) exemption is abolished on all imported goods. For more information regarding the European Union’s VAT rules, visit https://ec.europa.eu/taxation_customs/business/vat/vat-e-commerce_en.
4. PostNord Group AB requests that the mailer provide both the sender’s and addressee’s telephone number and email address, if available, on the customs form of each item sent with any of the following services: Registered Mail, First-Class Package International Service, Priority Mail International, or Priority Mail Express International. This contact information assists PostNord Group AB to expedite delivery.
5. Sweden requests that, for all items containing goods, the customs declaration form include the following information, if available:
   a. Country of origin for each article in the item.
   b. Economic Operator Registration Identification (EORI), if such a number has been assigned.)

Observations
1. A parcel may be addressed to a street address or to a post office box. A local telephone number for the addressee should be provided when the item is addressed to a street address and must be provided when the item is addressed to a post office box.
2. For parcels, an invoice, in duplicate, is required for all commercial shipments regardless of value and all personal shipments valued at $300 or more. The invoices must be affixed to the outside of the parcel or may be enclosed in PS Form 2976-E with the customs declaration.
3. A letter or card fully prepaid and bearing the same address as that of a Priority Mail International parcel may be tied to or otherwise securely attached to the outside of the parcel in such manner as to prevent its separation therefrom and not to interfere with the address of the parcel. Stamps to cover postage on the letter must be affixed to the envelope thereof, or in the case of a postcard, to the address side of the card, preferably the upper-right portion. Priority Mail International parcels to which such letters or cards are attached are treated as parcel post.
4. As of January 1, 2019, foreign mail order companies, including from the United States, with an annual turnover of at least 100,000 Swiss Francs (CHF) originating from small consignments (tax amount not exceeding 5 CHF) to Switzerland must pay a value-added tax (VAT) and register with the Swiss Federal Tax Administration.
5. Switzerland requests that, for all items containing goods, the customs declaration form include the following information, if available:
   a. Country of origin for each article in the item.
   b. Economic Operator Registration Identification (EORI), if such a number has been assigned.

Country Conditions for Mailing

The Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) of the U.S. Department of the Treasury and the Bureau of Industry and Security (BIS) of the U.S. Department of Commerce administer sanctions that restrict the mailing of items to certain destinations and recipients, including a broad embargo on items to and from Syria. Many shipments to Syria also require the filing of information with the U.S. Census Bureau. Before mailing any items to Syria, mailers should refer to IMM 510, 520, and 530 and to Publication 699, Special Requirements for Shipping Internationally, for additional information.
