Tampa, FL Regional Processing & Distribution Center (RPDC) Modernizes Operations on May 25, 2026

To support the Postal Service's network modernization plan in Florida and across the nation, the Tampa, FL Regional Processing and Distribution Center (RPDC), previously named the Ybor City, FL Processing and Distribution Center (P&DC), will modernize operations on May 25, 2026.

The facility has been outfitted with new, upgraded package processing equipment that will increase package sorting throughputs, increase automation capabilities for larger packages, increase sortation accuracy, and improve machine reliability. This regional processing and distribution center will enable our network to support package growth while ensuring reliable, affordable, secure, and universal mail delivery.

All FAST appointments and origin entry volume will be at the RPDC (below).

Ybor City P&DC will become Tampa RPDC

1801 Grant St.
Tampa, FL 33605
NASS Code: 335DC

Note: The physical address will remain the same, but the facility name will change

Thank you for entrusting the United States Postal Service with your shipping services needs.
